

Local entrepreneur gives back to the community

Ron Dowell, Editor Grants Pass Now

Hello everyone and welcome to Grants Pass Now. I created this new and exciting web publication as a personal thank you to all of the wonderful people I have met since I moved here twelve years ago. When I arrived I was seeking an easier softer way of life and found the Grants Pass culture ever so inspiring and quickly realized I was home.

Having aspired to the local offerings of personal and professional betterment, I now stand poised to return the favor as the owner and editor of Grants Pass Now 'a forum for civic mindedness and community wellness.' Please log on to grantspassnow.com and get to know the very people that I have encountered both professionally and personally, both recently and over the years.

Grants Pass Now is a professional digest, based on positive energy, which essentially holds up a mirror for the community to see itself in all its glory. GrantsPassNow.com is managed by FastServerLLC.com and committed to providing balanced perspective to all who participate in the community.

To date we have offered or fulfilled donated websites to College Dreams, Zonta, Merlin Community Park, Josephine County Republicans, Josephine County Democrats, SORA, Search and Rescue, and Friends of Canine. As we move into 2008, please check in often to see how these and other organizations have benefited from Grants Pass Now. Most of all, thank you for being Grants Pass.

Kindest Regards,

Ron Dowell

Editor, Grants Pass Now

The Secret is Positive Energy, Pass it on...
